DONOVAN TO GREER:
"I have the pull,
You have the plant;
Party to h—l,
It's money I want."

BE FAIR IN ALL THINGS.
The Greer-Donovan combination don't go.

DONOVAN IS ONLY TWENTY PER CENT. OF A DEMOCRAT.

THE GREER-DONOVAN COMBINATION lacks several points of being a winner.

OKLAHOMA is climbing to the top of the ladder. Look at her banks and flour.

Twenty per cent is Donovan's contract price for securing work for the State Capital.

THE CITY should have a municipal hall by all means. This thing of continuous rent paying is senseless.

BOSTON carpenters have won a victory after a hard struggle. The eight-hour law will be observed hereafter.

A MAN named Oyster in Iowa has been arrested for embezzlement. Of course he is in a stew over the outcome.

PUBLIC officials are always open to criticism. But a man should not be judged guilty until the fact is established.

AN eastern paper remarks that Republicans and Populists are always known by their mouths. What's the matter with their ears?

ATTORNEY-GENERAL LITTLE, of Kansas, insists that while women can hold the office of high school trustee, they may not vote for it.

THE LEADER bindery now employs a force of twenty men, running night and day, and turning out as good work as can be had at any blank book house in the west.

Twenty per cent Donovan would lay down his fragment of principles to go on a starring tour with Greer through the strip in the interest of a Republican institution.

THE Drayton-Burrows scandal has been revived. Hallett Alsop Burrows got on a howling jag in New York the other day and is giving the newspapers a chance to be reminiscent.

THE funeral of the late Carter H. Harrison was the largest ever held in the West. The procession passed by the station where Maniac Prendergast is confined, but he showed no signs of interest or remorse.

GREER was very successful in making a caspaw out of Donovan, but they will have to pull the wool over the eyes of a whole lot of good Democrats before they will succeed in clanking the coveted chestnuts.

ACCORDING to a Chicago paper, Crank Prendergast has studied so much over the problems of finance that rats got into the garret. The paper recommends that all such persons should be locked up with the insane. That plan wouldn't work in Kansas.

BLOOD-SUCKING GREER, who has wiled, repeatedly and laboriously attacked Governor Renfrow and everything Democratic in Oklahoma, now sets his slobbering jaw at work palavering the county officials, and has the gall to ask for patronage. He consorts with a quasi-Democrat for hoodwinking purposes.

A. S. PRATHER, accused by the Chicago dispatches of taking bribes while judge of awards in the agricultural drives at Guthrie, is at Gus Rhoads' cigar store.

department, is a republican and an ex-appointee of Governor Sney's. He held a commission in one of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe counties. Being of opposite political faith, we would suggest to Mr. Reeson and Prather that they now pair off and quit voting.

He Will Use It.
A man living near the salt plains, 20 miles northeast of Alva, worked faithfully for several days digging a well through the rock, and when he found water it was so salty that it was unfit for use; he didn't get disgusted and leave his claim. He said he would dig a cistern near his home, and would utilize the well as a reservoir for pickles and sour kraut, and will plant nothing but cucumbers and cabbage next spring.

Mrs. Holloman Dead.
Mrs. Holloman, formerly of Oklahoma City, and the Columbia commissioner of Oklahoma county, and wife of the popular and well known Dr. W. D. Holloman, died very suddenly at Galveston, Texas, to which place the entire family removed early in the present year. She was known in the territory, and did noble service on the Columbia commission.

Business is so dull in the justice courts that the justices have decided to sit still and wait for their warrants.

Confirmation.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The nomination of J. R. Wolsey of Arkansas as Indian agent at Ponca, Pawnee, Otoe and Oakland agency, Oklahoma territory, was confirmed by the senate.

INHABITED BY A GHOST.

A House in Colebrook, N. H., Said to Be Haunted.

The community of Colebrook, N. H., is very much exercised over the ghost which is said to nightly haunt what is known as the Warrington place, a small house situated about a mile and a half from town. This ghost is said to be that of the house's last tenant, Cornelius Warrington, who a few months back hanged himself there. For some years Warrington had been unpopular with the townspeople, owing to a suspicion that he had been instrumental in bringing about his brother's death, which left him heir to his relative's property.

The body of water was privately examined and examined, but there being nothing found to sustain the suspicion of foul play Warrington was never publicly accused, though most of the community still believed him guilty, and accordingly tattered him. This finally so affected the man's spirits that he made way with himself.

Several responsible persons who knew Warrington well in life testify to having seen him about the place of ate, but that on their trying to accost him he disappeared. The house now belongs to a distant relative residing in New York, and when he heard of the ghost he ordered an examination made of the premises. This task was John Fleming's, a well-known citizen, who says that he distinctly saw Cornelius Warrington one night enter the house, but on going to search the place found it locked up securely and without a living creature in it.

IN PUGET SOUND.

A Paradise for Fishermen in Waters Teeming With Life.

Puget Sound swarms with fish. Wonderful stories are told of them. So plentiful are the salmon that during the season when they are running up the streams it is said they will rush up a brook so thickly as to wedge together and form a bridge that one can walk across. In jumping the falls of small creeks they often injure themselves terribly on sharp rocks. Salmon is the favorite fish of that country. Even the ladies like them. One old fisherman down on the wharf told how a lady up town had a pet salmon. It stayed in a certain little cove. During the rainy season the lady would come each day to feed it with bread. When she would start back it would swim up the watery streets and follow her home, then swim down again to its little cove.

Very queer fish are caught in these waters. One kind is called candle fish. It is dried and packed in boxes like candles. We take to the fishermen use them to light their homes, and that at one time all the boats on the sound used them instead of sperm-oil lamps. By putting the heads of the fish downward in a candlestick and lighting the tail, which, in conjunction with the backbone, acts as a wick, it burns like a candle. They eat this fish, and when cooking it is so fat it fries itself.

CHARLOTTE CORDAY'S SKULL.

The Centenary of Her Death Attracted Much Attention in France.

As for revolution centenaries of general interest, next to those of the fall of the bastille and the founding of the republic, Charlotte Corday certainly attracted most attention. As far as newspaper supplements and articles go, she had a celebration for five days. Of course a good deal was about Marat, but solely in justification of Charlotte Corday's abhorrence of him. Though she counted on joining Brissot and other ancients in the Elysian fields, she was not indifferent to earthly fame, or she would have been less solicitous about her portrait, and the respect and admiration which are now testified for her would have gratified her ambition. Both the small hotel in which she lodged and the house occupied by Marat have disappeared, but M. Claretie possesses the iron bar of the balconies of both buildings. Prince Roland Bonaparte claims moreover to possess Charlotte Corday's skull. It came to him from M. Duroy, who had it from M. St. Alban, and the latter showed it to Esquiros about 1813. Experts state that this skull was never buried, and that the ten missing teeth were extracted after death. The supposition is that Charlotte Corday's head was handed over to the medical school, and that the teeth were given away as relics. Prince Roland professes to have clear proofs of the genuineness of the skull. It may be added that one of the jury who condemned Charlotte Corday was Fualdes, whose murder in 1817 made a great sensation, and was for a time enveloped in mystery.

BAD GIRL WITH A GUN.

SHE PERFORATES A MAN FOR STEALING A DISHPAN.

The Shot Costs Her One Hundred Dollars—Federal Prisoners From the Osage Country—Violated Revenue Laws.

Lizzie Railroad, a buxom colored girl, was brought down from Perry yesterday and lodged in the federal jail. Lizzie is meek at times, but the other day she got on her muscle and ran a-smack through the streets. She wound up by quarrelling with a white man over a dish pan. In the melee which followed Lizzie whipped out a gun and took a shot at her antagonist, severely wounding him in a tender region of his anatomy. She was arrested and arraigned before Judge Clayton, who fined her $100 and costs for carrying a gun. She failed to liquidate and was brought here to serve out her fine.

BATCH OF LAW BREAKERS.

The following prisoners were brought down from Perry last night and lodged in the federal jail: Harry Alvord, charged with petit larceny, sentenced to thirty days; Elmer Palmer, same offense, sixty days; J. L. Kenney, same offense, thirty days; J. S. Young, assault and battery, fifteen days.

COLONEL WHITEHALE IS JAIL.

Deputy Marshal Morris Roebacker came in from the Osage country yesterday with two prisoners. One was an Indian named Charley Whiteale, and a white man named Robert Effe. Both are charged with introducing ardent spirits into the Indian country. Joe Pentecost came in last evening bringing one C. E. Updegraff, charged with violating the revenue laws in the Pawnee country.

A SAD PICTURE.

An Indian Describes the Indian Territory as It Really Is.

The following picture of the situation in the Indian Territory is taken from "John, Three, Sixteen," a religious journal published by J. E. and Kate T. Wolf. The latter is a Creek Indian and knows whereof she talks. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf are evangelists among the Indians and are devoting their lives to the cause. "The condition of the Indian Territory is almost indescribable. The whole country is in a transition state. The past five years have witnessed many changes, not the least among them being the attitude of the Indians toward the question of land allotment. The influx of white people has been unprecedented. There are probably ten white people to one Indian at present in this country, and still they are coming. The duller minds of the fall-blood red men are beginning dimly to grasp the situation, and instead of talking of holding the lands in common any longer they are looking to their legislators to devise some plan by which they may each have their quota of the soil given them. If ever there was a helpless people on the face of the earth, slaves of their surroundings and circumstances, dupes of the tricky politicians who abound, gouged and cheated by the white shysters of the land, these are the people."

COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED.

To Negotiate With the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians.

A Washington special dated Nov. 2, says: The president to-day sent the following nominations to the senate: Henry L. Daves of Massachusetts; M. H. Kidd of Indiana and Archibald S. McKennon, of Arkansas, to be commissioners to negotiate with the five civilized tribes under the provisions of the act of congress approved March 3, 1902.

William B. Anderson of Illinois to be pension agent at Chicago. George Harper, of Georgia, to be agent for Indians of the Matilla agency in Oregon. David F. Day, of Colorado, to be agent for the Indians of the Southern Ute agency in Colorado.

Township Board Hired.
The Perry Democrat of yesterday says: All day to-day the township board composed of Messrs. McElrath, Fitts and Bailey, has been extremely busy. All last night men and women stood in line and shivered in order to be on hand this morning to file on their lots. The line has been unbroken and the board has worked incessantly since 9 o'clock at which time Chas. E. Colord presented himself and was the first to file on a town lot in Perry. Marshal Tilghman stationed two of his policemen on watch last night to preserve the peace.

Firing 'Em Off.
Up to 2 o'clock today seventeen occupants of the public square had been arrested by Sheriff Scruggs. It was thought that a test case would be made and the others would abide by the decision. Just what the outcome would be is of course hard to surmise but it is probable that the occupants will have to move.—Perry Democrat.

Merchants are not complaining.

Business is picking up and every respectable local business man feels that the season of "hard times" has passed.

CHIPS FROM CROSS.

Thirty-two cars load of lumber and eight cars of merchandise were unloaded at Cross yesterday. While this is more than an average day's business still it is an index of the immense amount of freight received at this point.

A flock of 500 sheep passed the city this morning, on one of the valley farms in the neighborhood. They will be wintered in one of the gulches.

Two new hotel buildings were begun this week. The one opposite the depot will be three and two stories in height. The North Main street hotel will also be a two-story building.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Gross registration frauds are charged in Camden, N. J. The court may make an investigation.

Fire destroyed a lodging house in St. Louis and one lodger, name unknown, was burned to death.

An Alabama man threw a train off the track near York. The fireman was killed and several people badly hurt.

Estimates from all the principal cotton-producing states make the crop between 7,000,000 and 7,500,000 bales.
